

Tour Guides:

Your Tour Guides for this wonderful journey are Jill Winters, Wendy Dekker and Quarry Macdonald.

Jill is a girl from Massachusetts. She is living during WWII. She is very independent and outgoing.

Wendy is a girl from Upstate New York. Wendy is very boastful and girly.

Quarry is a very smart boy who lives in Winter Haven, Maine. He is into all the gossip around town and believes most of it. Quarry is very intelligent.

Quotes:

"Gossip ain't never been so good," Quarry said.

Destination:

You will be traveling to Winter Haven, Maine, during the summer of 1942 while WWII is taking place. Carrier pigeons may occasionally land in your yard with secret government messages. There may even be German U-Boats in the harbor of Winter Haven and in the Gulf of St. Lawrence which is very close to you so...

WATCH OUT!

^German U-Boat ^

^Gulf of St. Lawrence ^

My Recommendation

I highly recommend that you take this once-in-a-lifetime journey to Winter Haven, Maine with Jill Winters.

Jill is a very independent and needs help with a serious dilemma that may put her life in danger!

This journey is full of excitement, drama and mystery!

There is definitely something in it for all of us, but you will have to take the journey to figure out what that something is for you!

